The Summer Edition of the Festival of African Cuisine

This Summer don't miss The Summer Edition of the Festival of African Cuisine

*This is the most exciting Foodies convention focusing on African food

It is holding in August at the ILEC conference centre in Lillie road, Earls Court London. ILEC is Two minutes walk from West Brompton Tube station on the District line.

You can savor freshly made African dishes made by Five young chefs. They will showcase national dishes, popular snacks and spicy street food from every region of the African continent.

It will also feature many show stopping pieces of African Art, Fashion, Music and culture.

Tickets for Food and Wine tasting are £27 and there are limited in number.
